POSTAL REGULATORY COMMISSION

Dear Sirs and Madams:

Please do not vote for Postmaster DeJoy's 10-year plan. It would be the ruin of the US Post Office and delay mail and ruin many online businesses. Since he has been in charge, the US Post Office has lost, delayed, and damaged multiple packages I have sent. I have been using the post office for years and never had so many problems until he took charge. I have full respect for most USPS employees and know they generally want to do a good job. In fact, my father retired from the post office.

DeJoy is a disgrace to the system and seems to just want to destroy it. Not only do you need to vote against his plan, you need to fire him! He does not belong in public service.

Thank you for taking the time to read this letter.

Sincerely,

Lina B. Findlay

POSTAL REGULATORY COMMISSION

Dear Sirs and Madams:

Please do not vote for Postmaster DeJoy's 10-year plan. He has no regard for the public's good and will ruin the post office. His plan does not make any business sense and would delay mail and make it even more difficult to get to the post office during open hours, if operating hours are decreased. Many people depend on the mail for medicine, checks, and business. Eliminating the use of air transport is like going back in time and may even increase the chances of mail getting lost.

DeJoy will destroy the post office. Not only should his plan be voted again, he should be fired! He does not belong in public service.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
